Board & Members for 2015

The Ashby Land Trust is an all volunteer organization, as strong as the membership and its active committed Board. All members are welcome to participate at all levels of the organization, including becoming members of the Board of Directors. Would you consider becoming an active part of the Land Trust? There are many ways you can participate - participating in hikes and events, helping organize special events, taking on special projects, increasing your financial contribution and joining the Board.
